Why Should I Invest in an IRA?

A tax break is a terrible thing to waste. So, if you're not taking advantage of an Individual Retirement Account (IRA), you may be missing out on an exceptional opportunity!

The contribution limit for 2008 is $5,000, and those age 50 or older can also make an additional $1,000 catch-up contribution. There's a suitable IRA for virtually everyone. Depending upon your income and personal situation, you may qualify for a Roth or Traditional IRA.

As always, we'd be happy to sit down with you and go over your individual situation. If you are interested in discussing this further, please call a Member Service Representative at NorthPark Community Credit Union. They will be happy to talk to you about your options as well as schedule an appointment with Andy Schnipke, our Westpoint Financial Services representative.

If you would like to contact Andy directly, he can be reached at:
