Are you someone who makes New Year's Resolutions? Or are you of the mindset that if you can't keep them, then why bother? As we enter another year in which the economy is still a little shaky and the threat of unemployment is very real, let NPCCU help you with a few financial resolutions to help keep you on the right track this year!

Resolution 1 - Consolidate Your Loans

Now is the time to consolidate your credit cards, personal, and signature loans into one payment. If you have enough equity in your home, consider doing a home equity loan. You usually get a better rate and a possible tax deduction, too!

Resolution 2 - Save for the Future: Open an IRA

Not only are you saving for the future, but you have until April 15, 2010 to make a 2009 contribution! This might help you save some money on your 2009 taxes.

Resolution 3 - Refinance your home

Interest rates continue to be the lowest they have been in quite some time. Think about refinancing and use your equity to consolidate your other bills into one loan payment. Once again, you usually get a better rate and a possible tax deduction, too!

NPCCU can help you make these resolutions a reality! Call one of our loan officers, Dave James at 317/773-2200, ext. 122, or Vicky Deckard at 765/482-0100, ext. 206 and get started today!
